So help me God

No matter how firm our resolutions, we can't make ourselves better people by ourselves. God empowers our good works when we rely on his aid. H.P. Nichols, a 19th Century poet, wrote

If I resolve, with the new year,
a better child to be,
'Twill do no good at all, I fear,
but rather harm to me,
Unless I try, with every day,
no angry word to speak;
Unless, each morn, to God I pray
to keep me mild and meek.
Then let me try with all my might,
and may God help me too,
Always to choose the way that's right,
Whatever act I do.

A joyful heart is good medicine.
Proverbs 17:22, ESV

A cheerful note for a fresh and bright New Year! Wishing you snowy days, cozy nights and lots of love. May the Sun (Son) start each day by bringing new energy, peace, love and joy as we begin another Covid-19 year. My Christian hugs and kisses of Agape (unselfish adoring love) to you this year. Happy and blessed 2022 ahead!

Love and blessings from Katie Horsley.

Special Thanks

We here at Menno-Hof thank God for Shore Church and it's members!! Thanks again for your support!

Editors Note: Sarah Kilmer went to be with the Lord this past week. She had been homebound for many years with health issues. She and I became pen pals along the way, exchanging letters and learning to know each other. I loved getting to know Sarah over the years and will miss her greatly! She sent me this piece (in her handwriting) last year and asked me to use it as "filler" for the Shoreline sometime. I tucked it away, waiting for the right time. Upon her recent home-going, I can't think of a more appropriate time to post it. Sarah's empty seat is filled with memories that will travel on.

The Train

At birth we boarded the train and met our parents, and we believe they will always travel by our side. As time goes by, other people will board the train, and they will be significant, our siblings, friends, children, strangers and even the love or our life.

However, at some station our parents will step down from the train, leaving us on this journey alone. Others will step down over time and leave a permanent vacuum. Some, however, will go unnoticed that we don't realize they vacated their seats.

This train ride will be full of joy, sorrow, fantasy, expectations, hello's, good-byes and farewells.

Success consists of having a good relationship with all passengers requiring that we give the best of ourselves.

The mystery to everyone is: We do not know at which station we ourselves will step down, So we must live in the best way, love, forgive and offer the best of who we are.

It is important to do this because when the time comes for us to step down and leave our seat empty we should leave behind beautiful memories for those who will continue to travel on.

I wish you a joyful journey for the coming years on the train of life.

Reap success, give lots of love and be happy.

More importantly thank God for the journey and thank you for the ride.
