

Today's Scripture John 6:22-59 (Printed) John 6:35-40 (ESV)

<sup>35</sup> Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst. <sup>36</sup> But I said to you that you have seen me and yet do not believe. <sup>37</sup> All that the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never cast out. <sup>38</sup> For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will but the will of him who sent me. <sup>39</sup> And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. <sup>40</sup> For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day."

John 8:12-20

Jesus tells the Pharisees, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life." Since Jesus is the light of the world, what does this mean for me and how I act towards others? Also, what am I doing to help people who are walking in darkness?
