Dear Friends, This note is long overdue, but comes with a humble and sincere thank you. You have showered us with prayers, gifts, money and good thoughts over the last few months while Pete has had to live with brain cancer. The love offering presented to us from all of you has been so incredibly helpful with paying for the numerous additional expenses that have come up due to his illness. We have been overwhelmed by the love shown to both of us.

Pete is currently in a break from all treatments while we wait for an MRI on July 6 to determine if the radiation and chemo have helped him, thus far. That test will help us determine what is next for him. I am able to come to work at RYLM about two times a week while my daughter stays with Pete. I love those days that help me to stay connected with what's happening. And, I absolutely love the many wonderful and encouraging hugs from my favorite little people!

Again, your support through this difficult time has been amazing and so very much appreciated. We feel the prayers and love coming our way!

Pete & Portia Amstutz
