Who's New in the Pew?

Mel & Barb Beechy have been married 53 years. They have 2 sons, 6 grand children and 9 great grandchildren! Mel left the Amish and the two met in LaGrange where she is from. Barb was baptized at Shore Mennonite Church when she was 14 and she and Mel attended here for awhile before they moved to Topeka and began attending Maple Grove. They later moved to Arizona for 10 years. They have been attending Shore now for over a year and are excited about also attending worship with their son, Ken and his wife Trina, as well as, their grand-daughter Jeanna her husband Cormac. They also bring some of the greats to church with them sometimes. It's a big family affair!! Barb says, "God is wonderful!" "We love our church family!" I agree Barb! Welcome to Shore Church Beechy family!

We don't have a fellowship Hall for our traditional Easter Breakfast but we will be providing a finger food style breakfast in the lobby with a few tables scattered about. Breakfast will be served from 8:30-9:15. Service will begin at 9:30. No Sunday school.

Event Coordinator Needed

Jr. & Inez are wanting to step down from their years of service as Event Coordinators. We appreciate their years of service! Church Stewards are currently looking for a couple to take this paid position. Event Coordinators oversee the set up and tear down of all special events of the church, fellowship meals, funerals, weddings and special events. They coordinate with the church office and those involved with the event and are present and available during the events. If this sounds like something you might be interested in, please contact Rich Stoltzfus for more details.
