To the Sunday School classes who contributed to the college scholarship match for Josh and Maria Mishler's sons...

Thank you so much for your contribution. We really appreciate it, and we know that it will go a long way to helping us continue to study at Taylor. We really couldn't do this without churches like you helping us so we are so thankful for your help.

From Karen Unternahrer regarding the Dominican trip

Thank you to those who showed interest in a mission trip to the DR with Students International. Due to the current backlog on passports, we want to look at doing a trip in 2024 instead. Who's New in the Pew?

Getting to know Dora Martin-Eash and family

Dora Martin-Eash is married to Chad Eash. They have three daughters that fill their Middlebury home with grace and beauty; Penelope (19 yrs.) Josie (14), Felicity (9). Dora is a private practice therapist and a counselor at Elijah Haven.

She and Chad grew up in the area. He is a Northridge grad and she is a Westview grad. All three of their girls attended RYLM, so Shore has always felt like a second church home to their family. They have been attending here for several months.

Felicity attends Shipshewana Scott and is about to start her first year in 4-H. Josie is a competitive dancer and considers Hannah Mishler one of her mentors! Penelope, their oldest daughter, is a freshman at Manchester University.

Their family enjoys the great outdoors. Hiking, camping and spontaneous beach day trips to Lake Michigan in the summer are some of their favorite activities.

The Eash family shares their home with two dogs, Dudley and Oakley, two cats and one very noisy bird!

We're happy to scooch over and share a pew with you Eash family! Blessings and have a great summer!
