

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Relief Sale is next weekend. How can you support the sale?

- Bake something to donate. (See the table in the foyer for specifics and baking supplies). Gather extra quilting supplies. Thin out your plants. Then drop them off on Friday 9-22 to the church lobby by 8 a.m. to be transported to the fair grounds.
- Bid at one of the two major auctions, each with over 200 items! Bidding is live for the online silent auction. There are lots of great items including many beautiful handcrafted items, gift certificates to area businesses, artwork, and much more.
- You can view items and place bids at charityauction.bid/MCCSale2023. View items for the Quilt auction on the Brolyn Auctions website brolynauctions.com and register to bid. The auction starts live at 8 a.m. on Saturday in the largest building on the fair grounds. Bidding will be possible in person and online
- Keep collecting coins for My Coins Count and bring them to the Relief Sale.
- Come and enjoy good food, bid on auction items, enjoy children's activities, run in the Run for Relief & find treasures to buy!

Mishler Moments

News from Josh & Maria Mishler of Wycliffe Translators in Germany.

We are excited to have the Mishler family joining us here at Shore and in our community for a few months. They have been in the US for 2 months. A lot has happened since they arrived, including taking the boys to Taylor for college (Ryan, Junior Year, Kody, Freshman). Maria is homeschooling Bryn for 4th Grade and Maya is doing online school for 9th grade. Josh has made a temporary office downstairs in Grandpa Paul Mishler's office so he can continue to work without distractions.

Praises:

- The boys have settled in well at Taylor.
- They have a van to use for the year through Righteous Rides.

Prayer Requests

- Josh is going back to college. He will begin a Human Resource Management course at IUSB. This class will better prepare him for his role as a leader of HR Services in Eurasia Area.
- Josh will leave for meetings in Thailand from Sept. 22-Oct. 4.
- Maya and Bryn are missing their friends and social lives in Germany. Pray that they can make some connections with girls in Shipshewana. Maya is attending Youth Group at Shore.
- Pray for them as they juggle work, schooling for Josh and the girls as well as visiting/speaking engagements while they are in the US.
