ANNOUNCEMENTS

Elijah haven Crisis Intervention Center is always in need of help. You can help them monetarily by sending donations to Elijah Haven Crisis Intervention Center, P.O. Box 198 LaGrange, IN 46761. Volunteer as a Crisis Line Operator or transport clients to and from group counseling. Please contact Kathy at 260-463-8700. Victims housed in shelters need personal hygiene items. Toilet paper, paper towels, pillows, towels and household cleaning supplies, gas cards and gifts cards for grocers are all greatly needed and appreciated. These can be dropped off at the 201 S Detroit Street (Lagrange) address.

From Faith Mission of Elkhart: Thank you for your gift of $1250.00 to Faith Mission of Elkhart. Because of your generosity, we are able to impact more lives in our community.

You're not seeing things! The Shoreline is white and will be until I use up some surplus paper in the office. Please left Jeff Mowery know, I'm being a good steward :).

WHAT'S YOUR NOVEMBER?

For Davey Blackburn, a pastor in Indiana, one particular month has brought “the highest of highs and the lowest of lows.” He was born in November, moved to a new church in November 2011, and learned he’d be a father in November 2013. But two years later, in November 2015, Blackburn’s wife and unborn second child were murdered during a home invasion.

Despite that painful tragedy, the pastor determined not to “let the enemy have a claim over November” or “steal the many beautiful memories I once held” about it. Since then, his church’s worship team recorded an album one November, he proposed to his second wife another November, launched a new ministry one November, and welcomed another child the following November.

That journey, Blackburn says, is evidence of God’s faithfulness to replace a spirit of despair with a garment of praise (see Isaiah 61:3). And it’s an important reminder for the holiday season, with all its memories and traditions. Just as God wants to heal and restore, Blackburn writes, “Your [deceased] loved one would not want your ‘November’ to haunt your memory forever.”

Blackburn, author of the forthcoming book Nothing is Wasted, says everyone has a November but can choose what to do with it. Instead of letting your November haunt, you can let God use it to heal.

Mailboxes keep moving & changing! Be aware that your mailbox may be different from where it once was! If you just received a mailbox and have not returned the paperwork to the church office, please do so soon so we can get you in our messaging system and on the birthday calendar! Thanks!

Children - please notice a new item on the children’s table in the lobby. Children’s Worship Bulletins are now available. Pick one up!

If you purchased items for Operation Shoe Box for the Boys & Girls Club project, be sure to have them turned in by November 5 as that is the day they are packaging them.

A box has been placed in the foyer if you’d like to make a donation to the LaGrange County Clothes and Food Basket Christmas Bureau. The needed items were in your mailbox a few weeks ago. Deb Baker will deliver the items. They must be in the box by November 12.

There will be lots of opportunities to give and support those in need in our community throughout the holiday season. Stay tuned!

THE ABC'S OF LOVE

Who's New in the Pew?

Eldon & Ody Christner have been attending Shore for a little over a month and feel right at home here.

They met in St. Petersburg Florida while in Voluntary Service 1971-1972. Eldon was in VS and IW-Service. Eldon was from Shipshewana and Ody was a farmer's daughter from Dakota, Illinois. They lived in Emma for 33 years before moving to Shipshewana. Eldon worked at Mishler Packing 40+ years before retiring. Ody worked as a Secretary/Receptionist for various doctors in the county. She also worked a couple of years at Lambright Hatchery.

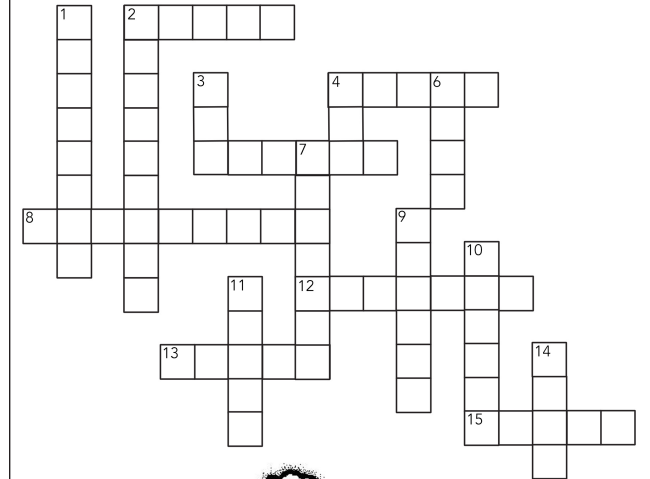

They are parents of three daughters. Lori lives in Wakarusa, Jessie lives in Goshen and Christi lives northeast of Scott. Two of them are teachers and one is a nurse. Each of them are married with 2 children.

The Christner's enjoy bike riding, walking, attending their grandchildren's activities and cooking.

Please get to know Eldon and Ody - their smiles testify to the joy of the Lord!
Welcome to Shore, Christner's!
