As you all know, I really like words. I like to arrange them into stories, use them to describe a big event or to get my point across. I always have words readily available. However, I'm completely at a loss for words for the first time!

I was so humbled, blessed, and overwhelmed by the amazing outpouring of love and graciousness shown to me upon my 20th anniversary as the Administrative Assistant here at Shore.

I want to say that I love my "job" here at Shore, but honestly, it doesn't feel like a job. It feels more like a ministry or a wonderful opportunity to serve the people I love so dearly... My church family!

Thank you for all your support over the years, the way you love up on me and my family, and for being forgiving when I make mistakes. You have blessed me beyond measure!
