My Coins Count - it's time to start thinking about saving up our pocket change to help feed those around the world through the Michiana Mennonite Relief Sale. The Relief Sale will take place, this year, September 27 and 28. There will be "My Coins Count" calendars in your mailboxes on August 18 that has inventive and meaningful suggestions of ways your family can collect change for the project. Your pocket change can make a huge difference in feeding the hungry around the world. Coins will be collected August 25-September 22 in the container on the offering table.

* Agape Missions of LaGrange County is hosting an all you can eat spaghetti dinner at the LaGrange First Church of God at 777 No Detroit Street in LaGrange.
