At Christmas, God sent his Son to live among us. But he doesn't want us to be passive recipients of that precious gift. Consider these challenges for the season — and for the new year ahead:

“He became what we are that we might become what he is.”
 —Athanasius (4th century)

 “When Christ entered our world, he didn't come to brighten our Decembers but to transform our lives.”
 —Rich Miller

 “Christmas began in the heart of God. It is complete only when it reaches the heart of man. Why wait for a call when you have a command?” -Robert Hughes

Thank you

Once again, Class 28 was the recipient of Kindness by some of our Shore Church family. A big “THANK YOU” to the carolers who sang for us and the Girls Club for the sweet treat and the ornament. We feel very blessed!

Come worship with us at our annual Christmas Eve Candlelight service held at 7 p.m. on December 24. The children will perform for us as part of the program. We will end the evening with candlelight carols. Bring your family and friends!

LOOK UPON LOVE

Let us then meditate upon the Nativity just as we see it happening in our own babies. I would not have you contemplate the deity of Christ, the majesty of Christ, but rather his flesh. Look upon the baby Jesus. Divinity may terrify people. Inexpressible majesty will crush them. That is why God took on our human flesh and blood, that God should not terrify us but rather that with love and favor God would console and comfort us.

—Martin Luther

BE MAKE ONE

Be One - Make One will be our Sermon Theme for 2025. Our scripture emphasis for the year will be Matthew 4:19 (CSB).

19 “Follow me,” he told them, “and I will make you fish for people.”

As we learn more about being a disciple and leading others to become disciples we will explore the lives of the 12 disciples themselves, dive into the book of James, discuss The Covenants and look at the book of Philippians.

Please pray for our Pastors, Leadership Team and our church as we seek God’s guidance and wisdom in learning about discipleship and how He wants to grow us in this.
