Loving God - Loving Others

HOW THEN WILL THEY CALL ON HIM
IN WHOM THEY HAVE NOT BELIEVED?
AND HOW ARE THEY TO BELIEVE IN HIM OF WHOM THEY HAVE NEVER HEARD?
AND HOW ARE THEY TO HEAR
WITHOUT SOMEONE PREACHING?
AND HOW ARE THEY TO PREACH
UNLESS THEY ARE SENT?

With Sincere Sympathy

Mark
Mishler met
Jesus face to face on
May 16,
2025 just 7

days after his 35th birthday celebration. Mark boldly proclaimed the good news of salvation through Jesus Christ wherever he went. In the face of great diversity, he continued to Praise God and tell of his greatness. Mark will be greatly missed by all who loved him. His legacy lives on in the example he set for us in how to shine bright for Jesus!

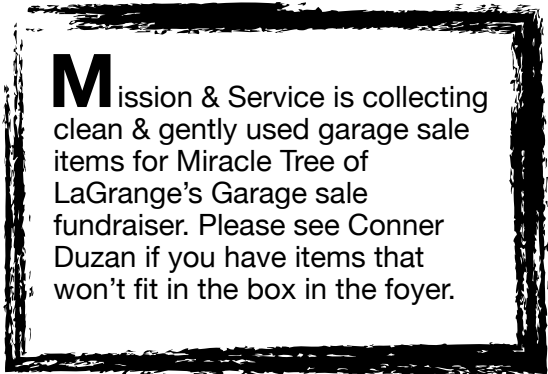

On Sunday, June 1, the Mission and Service Commission has asked Rev. Nehemiah Chigoji from the Anabaptist

Peace Center in Nigeria to come speak to us. Rev. Nehemiah is the founder of APC and an EVANA board member. He will speak to us about their vision to disciple those in need while sharing the Good News of salvation and Shalom of Jesus Christ.

Joyce Miller turns 100!! We are so thankful for Joyce and want to celebrate her! Join us for lunch on Sunday, June 1 after Sunday School in the Fellowship Hall. Meat and dessert will be provided. Please bring a salad or side dish to share!

LOVING MY "ENEMIES"

In polarized times, when people view huge concepts such as justice, government policy and care for neighbors differently, how do we follow Jesus' command to love our enemies? I prefer the word opponents, but our Lord's instructions still stand.

In the Bible, "love" doesn't mean liking someone; it means caring for them, treating them kindly. I find The Message paraphrase of Luke 6:27-36 helpful:

"Let them bring out the best in you, not the worst," Jesus says about one's enemies. So, when I contact government leaders to express my opinions, I address them with respect, whether I agree with them or not.

When I encounter a neighbor whose views oppose mine, I ask myself what I would want them to do for me, whether help with an errand or be friendly. Then, as The Message puts it, I "grab the initiative and do it for them."

And this, which might be the hardest: Amid tough times, Jesus says, "Respond with the supple moves of prayer." It's human nature to pray that God change our enemies' or opponents' minds. But it's more Christlike to pray for their health, their families and whatever God desires for them, not what I want. Can I do this? With God's help, yes.

“HELP ME NOT FEAR”

Father, dear Father, help me not fear, for you are my shield and great reward.

Father, dear Father, help me not fear, though briars and thorns are all around.

Father, dear Father, help me not fear. With you I stand firm. The battle is yours.

Father, dear Father, help me not fear. My heart is not troubled. I rest secure.
