THOUGHTS FOR FATHER'S DAY

A careful man I ought to be; a little fellow follows me;
I do not dare to go astray, for fear he'll go the self-same way.

I cannot once escape his eyes;
whate'er he sees me do, he tries —
Like me, he says, he's going to be,
the little chap who follows me.

He thinks that I am good and fine,
believes in every word of mine:
The base in me he must not see, the little chap who follows me.

I must remember as I go, through summer's sun and winter's snow, I'm building for the years to be, for a little fellow follows me.
