James 3:1-12 (ESV)

3 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, for you know that we who teach will be judged with greater strictness. 2 For we all stumble in many ways. And if anyone does not stumble in what he says, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle his whole body. 3 If we put bits into the mouths of horses so that they obey us, we guide their whole bodies as well. 4 Look at the ships also: though they are so large and are driven by strong winds, they are guided by a very small rudder wherever the will of the pilot directs. 5 So also the tongue is a small member, yet it boasts of great things.

How great a forest is set ablaze by such a small fire! 6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of unrighteousness. The tongue is set among our members, staining the whole body, setting on fire the entire course of life, and set on fire by hell. 7 For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and sea creature, can be tamed and has been tamed by mankind, 8 but no human being can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. 9 With it we bless our Lord and Father, and with it we curse people who are made in the likeness of God. 10 From the same mouth come blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. 11 Does a spring pour forth from the same opening both fresh and salt water? 12 Can a fig tree, my brothers, bear olives, or a grapevine produce figs? Neither can a salt pond yield fresh water.

1. As Christ followers, aren't we commanded to pass our faith to others? So why do you think James is encouraging fewer people to set their hearts on teaching?

 2. Why will teachers be judged with greater strictness?

 3. What is the purpose of the illustrations that James uses in verses 3-6?

Passage: James 3:1-12
Saturday: July 12, 2025

4. How does James explain the outrageousness of the inconsistencies of the tongue and relate it to the doubleminded man from James 1?

5. How can your tongue destroy relationships, friendships, your marriage, or even your church?
How can your tongue build these things up?

6. In verse 8, James said that no human being can tame the tongue. So why are Christ followers expected to reach for perfection, and how can we strive towards taming our tongue?

7. How does this passage motivate you to be more careful with how to use your tongue?
