ANNOUNCEMENTS

MCC's School Kit Challenge is back! School kits provide essential school supplies that families navigating war, displacement or financial struggles would not be able to buy otherwise. This summer you can help MCC reach a new goal of collecting 30,000 kits! Together, we can share God's love with some of our youngest global neighbors. To learn more about this challenge and to download a free activity guide, visit mcc.org/school-kit-challenge just married!

Congratulations to Kelsey Rich and Jack Goebel who were married on Sunday, June 28 at the Blue Barn Berry Farm in Syracuse. Kelsey is the daughter of Willie and Tonya Rich. Jack is from Greenwood In. Over the summer months Jack will be involved in a training program going back and forth from Chicago to North Carolina. Kelsey will remain in Shipshewana, continuing to sell her handmade jewelry in her mom’s store, Lasting Impressions, The couple will move to Belmont, North Carolina in the fall when Jack starts his full time position as Assistant Project manager for Aldridge Electric. May God richly bless this union and the many exciting adventures ahead.

Who's New in the Pew?

Kara & Olivia Rosentreter
& Joel Galvan

Kara Rosentreter and her daughter, Olivia have been attending Shore for about a year now, alongside Kara’s boyfriend, Joel Galvan. Kara is a Jr. High Teacher at Westview and enjoys crafts of all kinds. Olivia is a 7th grader at Westview. They both enjoy concerts and theatre.

Joel works at Mid-states Construction. He loves college sports and is a fan of the Texas Longhorns.

The three of them love to create things with Legos together.

Welcome to Shore Kara, Olivia and Joel!
