A great way to serve, connect and make Jesus SMILE!!!

Fall means lots of steamy bowls of soup! Let Missions & Service Commission and Women's Fellowship help stock your freezer for the winter ahead. Buying soup for yourself also helps stock the freezer of families involved in the New Mercies Ministry. Choose from Stuffed Pepper Soup, Chili, Vegetable Beef and Chicken Noodle. Available in pints and quarts. Order Forms and a box to collect payment are in the lobby. Soup will be made on October 31 as part of the Connect Day service projects and can be picked up in the Kitchen on November 1.

The Blessing Box gets used quite frequently and needs to be refilled.

Currently, we are running low on non-perishable items for the box. If you feel led to purchase items for the blessing box or give from your own pantry...here is a sampling of items that are needed. (All non-perishable items are acceptable)

Canned soup, vegetables, fruit, meat and dinners such as Ravioli, beef stew, and pasta sauce, etc.

Breakfast items like pancake and muffin mix, syrup, hot chocolate, oatmeal, granola bars, pop tarts and cereal.

Bagged or boxed items such as Rice-a-roni, flavored noodles, pasta, pizza kits, Mac-n-cheese, dried beans, rice, ramen, etc.

Items can be put in the bin in the foyer.

Thanks for helping feed those in need in our community.
