Missions & Service Commission invites you to become a prayer partner for RYLM families. The process is simple: you are matched with a family that attends RYLM and are given a few details about them. They ask that you thoughtfully keep them in your daily prayers. You will not necessarily connect directly with the family but we know that God knows all and that we can still ask for His presence to be close without knowing all the circumstances. This is a way that everyone can spiritually support the RYLM mission. If you'd like to become a Prayer Partner or need more info please contact Conner Duzan or Brooke Leupp.

Our dear brother, in Christ, Dan Unternahrer, went to be with Jesus on November 7. Dan was a pillar of Shore Church. He was instrumental in many mission trips, building projects and leadership over the years. He was a youth leader, Sunday school teacher and mentor to many. He will be greatly missed.

Our dear sister, in Christ, Judy Dintaman followed Dan into heaven on the same day. Judy also was a pillar of Shore. She served in too many capacities to mention, but music was her passion. She sang in choirs, cantatas and a Shore Quartet that sang at many events. Judy now sings with the Angel Choir.

Please keep the Unternahrer and Dintaman families in your prayers.

Thank you from the Dan Unternahrer family for all of the phone calls, text messages, cards, hugs and especially prayers during the past week. They were much appreciated and much needed. Dan was a great man and he and Annabelle impacted many people in their lives. Shore Church meant the world to both of them over the last 65 years.
